
"WHITTLIN'"

By L. VERNE SLOUT

(Author of "Lightnin'" and "Way Back East")

Presented by

The Seniors Of EAGLE HIGH SCHOOL

Directed by Miss Eagan

"WHITTLIN'" is a comedy-drama in three acts, showing how a young derelict keeps the "Widdie" from losing her home to the village money-grabber, Dave Petterman. He tries to cheat the widow out of her home, but her daughter, Ruth, and young Jimmy combine forces with old "Doc Yak." who is always whittling to ease his nerves, and who has been courting the widow for twenty-seven years, in time to out wit him to a fare-you-well. Prompted by Jimmy, they put Doc's whittlin' to a practical use by starting a toy factory.

Follow them through laughter and trouble to the culmination, when the two bachelors win success and happiness with the widow and her daughter.

"WHITTIN"

By L. VERNIE SLOUT

(Author of "Lighthouse" and "Wagon Tracks")

Presented by

The Seniors

OF EAGLE HIGH SCHOOL

Directed by Miss Eagan

"WHITTIN" is a comedy-drama in three acts, showing how a young heroine keeps the "Whittie" from losing her home to the village money-grubber, Dave Petterman. He tries to cheat the widow out of her home, but her daughter, Ruth, and young Jimmy combine forces with old
"Doc Yak," who is always whittling to ease his nerves, and who has been counting the widow for twenty-seven years, in time to outwit him to a fair-you-well. Prompted by Jimmy, they put Doc's whittlin' to a practical use by starting a toy factory.

Follow them through laughter and trouble to the culmination, when the two daughters win success and happiness with the widow and her daughter.

Cast of Characters

In the order of their appearance

Dr. Adam Good, "Doc Yak," the village doctor
----- George White
Ruth Wilson, her mother's daughter -----
----- Marilla Reynolds
Mrs. Josiah Wilson, her mother ----- Ruth Penny
Dave Petterman, the village crab -----
----- Marshall Hartman
Annabelle Dee, A giggling girl ----- Idella Calvick
Jimmy Edwards, who has possibilities -- Ed Watson
"Gip," an old friend of Jimmy ---- Louis Campbell
Johnny Dee, messenger boy ----- Robert Webb

Place: The sitting room of the Wilson home.

Time: The present.

Time of Playing: About two and one-half hours.

Act I—Just after supper.

Act II—Just after breakfast next morning.

Act III, Scene 1—Just after dinner one month
later.

Scene 2—Two days later.

Cast of Characters

In the order of their appearance

Dr. Adam Good, "Doc Yak," the village doctor
George White
Ruth Wilson, her mother's daughter
Marilla Reynolds
Mrs. Josiah Wilson, her mother
Ruth Penny
Dave Petterman, the village crab
Marshall Hartman
Annabelle Dee, A giggling girl
Idella Calvick
Jimmy Edwards, who has disabilities
Ed Watson
"Gip," an old friend of Jimmy
Louis Campbell
Robert White

Place: The sitting room of the Wilson home.

Time: The present.

Time of Playing: About two and one-half hours.

Act I—Just after supper.

Act II—Just after breakfast next morning.

Act III, Scene I—Just after dinner one month

later.

Scene 2—Two days later.
